

THE COMPOSERWORKS

Adam Price

KNOWN FOR: DRAMA, DOCUMENTARY

Adam is best-known for his bold, gritty sound that blends contemporary electronic textures with traditional orchestral scoring.

He recently scored the highly anticipated Ozzy: No Escape From Now documentary, released on Paramount+ in October 2025. Directed by BAFTA-winning Tania Alexander, the feature-length documentary is a deeply personal and unfiltered chronicle of the last six years of Ozzy Osbourne's life.

Adam scored Paramount and ITV Studios' The Crow Girl, since regarded as 'one of the finest British crime thrillers of recent years' by The Times, collaborating with Guns 'n' Roses lead guitarist Slash on the score. It has recently been announced that the show will return for a second series.

This followed his score for Paramount's thriller Apartment 7A, starring Julia Garner and produced by Michael Bay and John Krasinski. Additionally, Adam has contributed music to blockbuster films such as Mission: Impossible - Dead Reckoning, Argylle, Dungeons & Dragons, and Tetris, to name a few, solidifying his reputation as a versatile composer.

In addition to his composing work, Adam has served as an orchestrator on several major films, including Dead Reckoning, Ghosted, Dungeons & Dragons: Honor Among Thieves, Wallace & Gromit, Black Adam, Luther, and Life on our Planet. Notably, he arranged the orchestral version of the previously unreleased Beatles track 'Now and Then' for Apple TV's feature film Argylle, recorded at London's iconic Air Studios.

TESTIMONIAL

Adam is a genius...[he] is an original thinker as well as brilliant composer....I can't recommend Adam highly enough, an honour to work with, a star in the making.
