Paul Honey

KNOWN FOR:

DOCUMENTARY, DRAMA, FEATURE DOCUMENTARY

Paul Honey's musical career started at the age of 8 when he became a chorister at Westminster Abbey, singing daily in the choir. After studying music at Southampton University, he initially embarked on a career as a pianist and keyboard player, performing all over the UK, Europe, North America, Japan and Australia. However, as time passed, his interest in composition came more and more to the fore and Paul now works exclusively as a composer primarily for TV and Film.

Credits include award winning programmes such as A House Through Time (BBC) and the double BAFTA-winning Old Jack's Boat. He has composed music for factual and natural history documentaries such as the BBC2's Andrew Marr: My Brain and Me and Discovery's Dogs: The Untold Story.

Further credits include the BAFTA nominated animation series Children Of The Holocaust, Spike Milligan's Badjelly The Witch and the television adaptation of Blandings starring Timothy Spall and Jennifer Saunders.

A prolific composer of production music, Paul's work has been heard on a wide variety of advertising campaigns (Mazda, Pampers, Bertolli, Reserved), TV productions (A History of Scottish Art, Queen Victoria's Children, The Somme 1916), and trailers (Ch4's The Romanians Are Coming and the BBC1 drama Roadkill).

Paul is currently (2022) scoring a forthcoming Uplands Television/BBC/BFI feature documentary, series 5 of Molly and Mack (BBC Children's) and a forthcoming Blast! Films series for Channel 4.
