

COMPOSER NAME

Sanj Sen

KNOWN FOR ENTERTAINMENT, ANIMATION, COMMERCIALS

BAFTA-nominated Sanj Sen is vastly experienced in a diverse mix of music.

Described as a “calm genius” by one BBC exec, Sanj has steadily built his reputation as a composer who merges styles and influences to create a very personal and eclectic sound.

He was signed to BMG at the age of 17 to produce dance records for the U.S. and European market.

This led to his first solo album release under the name Indian Ropeman for Skint records. Extensive touring (including a 3-week Fun Loving Criminals support stint) gave Sanj the opportunity to hone his skills as a live player as well as a studio based producer and arranger. During this time Sanj worked with such acts as The Lo-Fi Allstars, Midfield General and The Space Raiders, whilst remixing for China, Beggars Banquet, Sony, and EMI.

TESTIMONIAL

Sanj has been nothing but professional, collaborative and wildly creative. Given little to no upfront instruction/direction, Sanj blew us away...
